SUMMARY

Future Full-Stack Web Developer who is studying at Southern Methodist University . Having owned a restaurant for over 17 years, acquired experience in public relations, finances, advertising and training. While running a restaurant also freelanced as a Graphic Designer, designing advertising materials for various businesses. Known as a creative, is also adaptable, disciplined and loves a challenge. Proficiency with HTML, CSS, jQuery and studying across the full technical stack. Excited to keep learning in the future and looking forward to solving problems since I have an ability to think out of the box.
